14th Sunday of Ordinary Time

Reading I: Isaiah 66:10-14c

Reading II: Galatians 6:14-18

Gospel: Luke 10:1-12, 17-20 or 10:1-9

Being Left Out

In the Gospel Reading, Jesus picks seventy-two people to send out on a challenging preaching mission. They travel from one city to another, by foot, without money or other provisions. Think about all the stuff we take when we travel, and you will see how difficult their mission was. But Jesus doesn't leave them helpless. He gives them power. They can cure sicknesses and cast out devils. That is a lot of power!

Jesus handpicked the seventy-two people he gave this power to. What would it have felt like to be a disciple who was not picked? How left out must such a disciple have felt?

If what you want is power and status, your desire is for yourself, isn't it? It isn't for Jesus.

But guess what? These seventy-two disciples were left out too. They may have done miracles, but they were left out of the company of the twelve apostles. The Gospel says that Jesus appointed seventy-two others—other beside the apostles, that is. Even though the seventy-two come back rejoicing that the devils are subject to their power, they still don't rank being added to the twelve apostles. And, of course that isn't the end of the story. Jesus took John and Peter with him to witness his transfiguration. The other ten apostles were left out.

How can Jesus leave people out in this way? Is everybody supposed to suffer some sense of abandonment by Jesus except those lucky enough to be in the innermost circle of the twelve? Or the even smaller circle of the two?

The solution to this puzzle lies in what a person wants. The seventy-two come back rejoicing in their power. But then power is what they want. Jesus rebukes them for it. Don't rejoice in your power, he tells them; rejoice rather in the fact that you will be united to God in heaven.

If you want not to be left out of something, your desire has to do with yourself and your status. Those who felt left out, because they weren't chosen to be among the seventy-two, wanted to be honored by being part of that group. And maybe that is why they weren't picked.

And maybe the seventy-two were passed over when Jesus was picking the twelve apostles because what the seventy-two cared about was power and their own status as powerful people handpicked by Jesus. If what you want is power and status, your desire is for yourself, isn't it? It isn't for Jesus.

So maybe in the end it is Peter and John who come with Jesus to see his transfiguration, but what they want more than anything else is being with him. If what you want is Jesus, you will never be left out.

Eleonore Stump.

The Lamb Shall Lead International – Diocesan Mission Co-operative Appeal for 2019

Every year our diocese invites missionaries from all over the world to share their work of new evangelization. This time The Lamb Shall Lead International missionary community from the Philippines is invited to come to our parish,

The missionary priest coming to preach on July 6-7, 2019 is Rev. Michael B. Semana.

The goal is to empower the poor to help the poorest of the poor. The new evangelization is geared towards systemic change and to engage the poor to become evangelizers themselves. Funds from this appeal will be used:

1. to provide care for malnourished children, who die due to simple and curable diseases, like measles and bronco-pneumonia
2. to help the elderly sick through medical, optical and dental healing missions and assistance
3. rehabilitation of the poor affected by outmigration from rural areas, forced relocation and natural calamities
4. to address hand-to-mouth existence issues of poverty through livelihood, farming and livestock development; and above all,
5. to replicate our good practices for sustainability by conducting trainings to develop capacities for management leadership and by establishing training Centers for missionary cooperative empowerment. Training and formation of our grassroots communities, especially among the youth, couples and families are essential.

Father Michael will share his experience with the poor, caught in the cycle of dependency and survival, and how they are empowered to achieve a better future, full of hope. Thank you in advance for your warm welcome. Your generosity is very much appreciated. Our Lamb community brings the good news of sacrificial love of Jesus, The Lamb of God. He provides us with hope and perseverance.

Sincerely, THE LAMB SHALL LEAD INTERNATIONAL, INC.
