MARCH 26TH ~ THE FIFTH SUNDAY OF LENT

5th Sunday of Lent

Eze 37:12-14; Ps 130:1-8; Rom 8:8-11; Jn 11:1-45

I will put my spirit in you that you may live, and I will settle you upon your land; thus you shall know that I am the Lord. (Eze 37:14a)

This Easter, God willing, two women will be brought into the fullness of the Catholic Church. One of them will be washed in the waters of Baptism, rising to a new life in Christ. Both will be confirmed in the Catholic faith and will — for the first time — be nourished with the Precious Body and Blood of Jesus Christ. As we approach Palm Sunday, Holy Week, and the Sacred Triduum — the celebration of the Lord’s Supper on Holy Thursday, the Lord’s Passion on Good Friday, and the glory of the Resurrection on Easter — let us pray for our Catechumen, Thomas Bayley, Danny Morales, Izaiyah Morales, Christina Vasquez, Lucas Jones and Jennifer Policarpio that they continue to receive God’s grace and blessings during this time.

Today’s Gospel reading is John’s account of Lazarus, brother of Mary and Martha, and close friend of Jesus. This is the only place in Scriptures that Lazarus appears, yet his story is central to John’s Gospel. Jesus’ raising of Lazarus set in motion those final events leading to Jesus’ journey to crucifixion on Calvary.

Lazarus has no noted place in secular history. He is not a recorded figure in the scriptural accounts of the early Church. Thus it can be reasonable to assume that, by earthly standards, he was not a figure of significance. Still, Jesus counted him as a friend and used him to show his love for all of us. He raised Lazarus not because of the man’s achievements, but because he loved him. Lazarus was restored not because of past or future deeds, but to show God’s abiding love for those who seek Him.

Jesus raised Lazarus to new life out of love so that all might believe. He raises us to new life in Baptism, Confirmation and Eucharist and sustains us in all the Sacraments of the Church. We are called to a life of love in the Spirit and to live that life as disciples to serve all men and women. As we go forth as servants of the Lord, let us resolve to be witnesses to him so that all might come to a share in the eternal kingdom of Our Heavenly Father.

I am the resurrection and the life; whoever believes in me, even if he dies, will live, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die. (Jn 11:25-26a)

Deacon Steven K. Szmuto

RCIA Sunday, March 19th at the 10:30 Mass we will witness the Third Scrutiny

The Third Scrutiny emphasizes Jesus as “the Resurrection and the Life” as we hear the Gospel of the raising to life of Lazarus. Jesus in his obedience to his Father has the authority to give life to whom he will. The raising of Lazarus is an anticipation of what is to take place on the last day. It means that the believer has eternal life; and has passed from death to life. It is also — again — an anticipation of what is celebrated at Easter and in Baptism, resurrection and eternal life.

The meaning for John is: Jesus in his obedience to and dependence upon the Father has the authority to give life to whom he will. The incident is a dramatic demonstration of the truth already declared in John 5.21 (“For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, so also the Son gives life to whom he will.”) which is itself the best commentary on the incident. The raising of Lazarus is not a piece of magic, nor even the supreme achievement of a Saint; it is an anticipation of what is to take place on the last day (an expression of what theologians call “Eschatology”). It means that the believer has eternal life; that he or she has passed from death to life.

Jesus prays, emphasizing his dependence upon the Father. Jesus can do nothing of himself but does what he sees the Father doing. The last enemy - death - is overthrown.

Note that the name Lazarus means “God helps”. The presence of Jesus effects to anticipate ‘eschatological’ events (i.e. to do with the end of the world), especially to judge and to give life. Also, the movement from death to life is the pattern experienced by all Christians, who have died already to sin and risen again in Christ, but all to be fulfilled on the last day.

With Lazarus, the ‘last day’ is being anticipated for the purpose of the sign, which demonstrates who Jesus really is, “the resurrection and the life”.

This Scrutiny celebrated on this day is primarily for the benefit of the Elect, but it reminds all the baptized of the promises God has made through Jesus of eternal life.

Please keep our catechumen in your prayers as they continue to full communion at the Easter Vigil.

WHY DO WE VEIL THE CRUCIFIX AND STATUES DURING LENT?

Veils over sacred images keep our minds on the promise of Easter.

First, The Church uses Veils to alert us of the special time that we are in. When we walk into church and notice everything is covered, we immediately know that something is different. These last two weeks of Lent are meant to be a time of immediate preparation for the Sacred Triduum and these veils are a forceful reminder to get ready.

Second, veils focus our attention on the words being said at Mass. When we listen to the Passion narrative, our senses are allowed to focus on the striking words from the Gospel and truly enter into the scene.

Third, the Church uses veils to produce a heightened sense of anticipation for Easter Sunday. This is further actualized when you attend daily Mass and see the veils each day. You don't want them to be there because they are hiding some very beautiful images. And therein lies the whole point: the veils are not meant to be there forever. The images need to be unveiled; it is unnatural for them to be covered.

The unveiling before the Easter Vigil is a great reminder of our own life on earth. We live in a "veiled" world, in exile from our true home. It is only through our own death that the veil is lifted and we are finally able to see the beauty of everything in our lives. This Lent Our Lady of Good Counsel will be veiling the Crucifix and Statues. On March 25th, the Fifth Sunday of Lent. How are you doing on your Lenten Journey?
